It is rumored that Tyrus Cobb of Augusta (Georgia) and Detroit will be nominated for president on the first ballot. Walter Johnson and Christy Mathewson are mentioned as track to witness, and it was racing logical candidates for the vice-presidency. The candidates for secretary of state will perhaps be two of Pennsylvania's favorité sons, Hans Wagner and G. C. Alexander.

Gedeon of New York and Shotten of St. Louis are mentioned for the war portfolio, while Shore is a possibility for secretary of the navy. Wheat looks to have the nomination for secretary of agriculture, although Meadows may make a strong showing in the St. Louis delegation. Pick of Philadelphia will be the eastern candidate for secretary of labor.

To date the delegates are uniting on two candidates for secretary of the treasury, Morgan of Washington and Steele of St. Louis being the two men most mentioned. If the latter should land the position Chase will be used in the department, it is thought. Judge of Washington may be given the position as attorney-general. A late report states that Baker will have a good chance for secretary of the interior. Speaker is slated for temporary

A number of candidates for the health department have entered the race, among them being two of New York's favorite sons, Pipp and Caldwell. Bush is slated for commissioner of forestry, while Walker, Packard, Chalmers and Plank are prominent candidates for positions on the interstate commerce commission. Burns for hot house inspector and Barry as possibilities. Love, Good and Long are mentioned often as members of the Hague conference.
